The St. Regis Abu Dhabi

The guest room of the Al Hosen Suite; the Nation Riviera Beach Club

It's easy to understand the appeal of The St. Regis Abu Dhabi. The capital of the United Arab Emirates is fast developing a major arts and cultural scene, turning the city into an ever more sophisticated metropolis blessed with cutting-edge architecture and world-class sports. Part of the prestigious Nation Towers complex on the Corniche, a five-mile stretch adjacent to the Arabian Gulf where you'll find walking and cycling paths and children's play areas, The St. Regis Abu Dhabi is the ideal home-away-from-home. Don't miss the Luxury Nation Galleria Vox Cinemas directly connected to The St. Regis Abu Dhabi, with 11 cinemas including four Gold Class. Relax and soak up the sun with a refreshing cocktail on the private beachfront at the exclusive Nation Riviera Beach Club, home to Asia de Cuba, a lounge, restaurant and beach deck complete with outdoor bar, and Catch Restaurant and Lounge Abu Dhabi, where an open kitchen allows guests to interact with the chefs and watch as ingredients are transformed into delectable dishes.

ASK US ABOUT

Brunch in the Clouds. A brunch journey where each diner is free to explore the 150,000-dirhams-per-night suite and discover culinary delights in each room, including a cinema full of candy, a cheese-and-dessert room, a caviar ice bar, and a private bar equipped by the hotel's top mixologists. For a break between tasting, have a shoulder massage in one of the private spas.

A trip to the Falcon Hospital. With more than 75,000 falcons admitted in its first 14 years, this is the world's largest falcon hospital. Discover the significant role these birds play in the UAE's heritage.

Helipad Sunset Supper, taking place at the highest active helipad in the Middle East, at a height of 255 meters. A brigade of chefs, butlers and mixologists await you, serving premium caviar, fresh oysters and canapés. As well as a sensational view, guests are treated to a saxophone performance and the signature St. Regis Champagne sabering ritual.

The St. Regis Saadiyat Island Resort, Abu Dhabi

Exterior view of the hotel from the beach; a premium sea view room

Saadiyat is an island of only ten square miles, but it packs a lot into that space. Just 15 minutes' drive from the center of Abu Dhabi, it has a white sand beach, a designer golf course and, very soon, offshoots of both the Louvre and Guggenheim museums. It's a relaxing and chic retreat from the bustle of the city. The St. Regis Saadiyat Island Resort's architecture and interior design are stunning, showcasing the bold design principles of the award-winning architecture firm Woods Bagot and Johannesburg-based Northpoint Architects. Each room has panoramic vistas of the Gulf or golf course and interiors that meld Spanish and Arabian elements with a contemporary edge. In addition to business facilities, the resort has an Iridium spa offering products from luxury skincare brand ESPA, four swimming pools, a dedicated children's club and the state-of-the-art St. Regis Athletic Club. Dolphins frolic in the blue waters, while nearby Saadiyat Beach is a nesting site for hawksbill turtles.

ASK US ABOUT

Our new hammam. The Iridium Hammam experience draws on ancient bathing and cleansing rituals from different oriental cultures, providing the benefits of a traditional Hammam in a contemporary setting.

The Abu Dhabi Pearl Journey. Sail on a traditional dhow among the mangrove trees of the Arabian Gulf for a demonstration of the ancient art of pearl diving.

Playing a round at the championship Saadiyat Beach Golf Club. Three saltwater lakes, dunes and the beach itself are challenges along the way of this par-72 course. Lessons can be arranged.

A visit to Yas Mall. Our staff can arrange transportation to this glittering new shopping destination, Abu Dhabi's biggest mall, just 10 minutes from the hotel.

Family Traditions at St. Regis program: Ferrari Fun. Explore the world's first and largest indoor theme park, Ferrari World Abu Dhabi. It has over 20 unique rides and attractions, including the world's fastest rollercoaster, dedicated entertainment, themed stores and restaurants. Open Tuesday to Sunday, 11am to 8pm. The St. Regis Cairo

The hotel's impressive exterior at night; a guest bedroom with a spectacular Nile view

The St. Regis Cairo rises tall, overlooking the ancient River Nile and the Egyptian capital. Drawing inspiration from the refinement and elegance of The St. Regis New York, this new addition to the St. Regis portfolio is a unique expression of modern Egyptian grandeur. The 39-story hotel and residential complex is located in the heart of this vibrant metropolis close to fine dining, high-end shopping and historic sights, including the Pyramids. Featuring 366 exclusive rooms, suites and luxury apartments, St. Regis Signature Butler Service, an Iridium Spa and The St. Regis Athletic Club, the hotel is poised to become Cairo's most coveted address. Thoughtfully crafted taste-making is offered at eight culinary destinations, including a J&G Steakhouse; La Zisa, a flavorful Sicilian experience; Tianma, a Singaporean cuisine restaurant and Envy, an urban chic lounge on the Nile. With its grand staircase and a Swarovski crystal chandelier masterpiece, the 966 sq m Astor Grand Ballroom is ideally suited for upscale events and celebrations.

ASK US ABOUT

The Egyptian Museum in Cairo, which contains the world's most extensive collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts. The original collection of Pharaonic antiquities was established in the late 19th century and transferred in 1902 to its current home in Tahrir Square. Expert guides can be booked to lead you through the galleries of this iconic building.

Private dining on the Nile Deck. Watch the stars while you luxuriate in our perfected gourmet flavors just for you, elegantly laid out throughout the evening. Ideal for a romantic celebration or an intimate dinner for up to 8 guests.

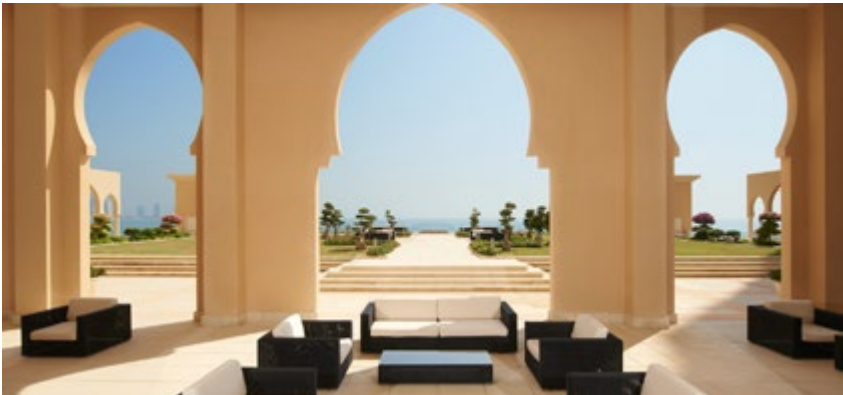

An Experiential Cooking Class. Discover and cook gourmet Italian dishes with Executive Chef Giuseppe Mandaradoni. Indulge in a truly immersive St. Regis ritual as we round off your experience with our dramatic art of champagne sabering.

A visit to Khan el-Khalili. Our staff can arrange transportation to this famous souk, one of the world's oldest covered markets. Founded in 1382, it was where the great camel caravans used to arrive after their long journeys. Today it is a bustling retail center where you can buy local and international goods. But be prepared to haggle.

The St. Regis Doha

The hotel's Arabian exterior is bold and welcoming; enjoy the cool ambience of the Sarab Lounge Terrace

Doha has transformed itself in an incredibly short time. Now the media and arts capital of its region, a major player in the aviation stakes and the host of the 2022 World Cup, it's an ultra-cosmopolitan capital. Victorian travelers needed to visit Florence, Paris and Vienna, but any 21st-century Grand Tour would definitely take in this city. The St. Regis Doha, with its postmodern Arabian architecture and panoramic views of the Persian Gulf, is a fitting address for a stay. The Rooftop lounge brings to Doha the urban chic of New York, Beirut and London. Guests ascend from the private entrance in the lower floor of the hotel and step out onto a breathtaking, stylish and spacious terrace. The newly opened Raw Bar boasts a range of caviars, carpaccio, ceviche, sushi and sashimi to savor with the finest wines and exclusive gastronomic signature cocktails, including mango and jalapeño mojito. Five miles from the main diplomatic and financial districts, it makes business sense to base yourself at The St. Regis Doha.

The St. Regis Dubai

The hotel's impressive exterior; an Empire Suite Living Room

Inviting guests to experience John Jacob Astor IV's vision of the finest hotel in the world, The St. Regis Dubai takes you back to the 18th century with its beaux-arts-inspired design with bespoke elements. Located on the arterial Sheikh Zayed Road, the hotel is part of Al Habtoor City, which includes a Las Vegas-style theatre, La Perle, and is a short drive from The Dubai Mall, Burj Khalifa and Dubai's financial district. Its Iridium Spa boasts six treatment rooms (three male, three female) and two Hammams. Other facilities include two rooftop pools and a 24-hour fitness center. The hotel's eight culinary destinations include J&G Steakhouse; Brasserie Quartier, a modern French brasserie; and Le Patio, serving traditional Arabic cuisine with a delicious range of Middle Eastern dishes and refreshing beverages. Inspired by the original address in New York while embracing the world's new hotspot, Dubai, The St. Regis Dubai pays homage to two iconic cities, emerging as The New World Address.

The St.Regis Dubai, Al Habtoor Polo Resort & Club

The Grand Salon; a Deluxe guest room

Feted as the first equestrian-inspired St. Regis globally, with its roots firmly embedded in the sport of kings, The St. Regis Dubai, Al Habtoor Polo Resort & Club debuted in February 2017. Located at the south-eastern tip of the Arabian Peninsula, the resort has been designed around three polo fields and styled around an Andalusian heritage. In the Equine Library, guests can unwind among the anthology of books and prized artifacts, while The St. Regis Polo Bar creates a sporty, club-lounge atmosphere. The Andalucia restaurant is open throughout the day, serving Mediterranean cuisine. There is also a steakhouse – The Grill Pit – which combines a theater-style kitchen and cellar, and a tapas restaurant with a central, open kitchen. The Iridium Spa, with its hacienda-style architecture, offers bespoke treatments. Another pièce de résistance is the Ballroom, spanning more than 5,000 sq feet and crowned by a prancing horse and crystal chandelier. As befits its standing, the resort features premium stabling for top-quality horses.

The St. Regis Mauritius Resort

Aerial view of Le Morne peninsula; a St. Regis Grand Suite Bedroom, just steps away from the beach and lagoon

The Indian Ocean is famed for many things: blissful beaches, indigo seas, sublime diving and a vibrant culture that melds Asian and African traditions. Mauritius brings these together, then adds a few more. Sheltered from the open sea by the world's third largest coral reef, the "Pearl of the Indian Ocean" also harbors some of the planet's most beautiful mountain scenery: waterfalls, lush forests and wildlife that you won't find anywhere else, such as the Mauritian flying fox. The St. Regis Mauritius Resort has a beachfront setting at Le Morne, a peninsula at the south-western tip of the island, and will indulge you with fine food and wine. The hotel welcomes the arrival of executive chef Nicolas De Visch, who has worked in Michelin-starred restaurants around the world. There are also spa experiences, world-class kite surfing, activities and excursions to excite the senses. The peninsula has been a UNESCO World Heritage site since 2008, and is less than 60 minutes' drive from the capital and 20 minutes' drive from the famed Black River Gorges National Park.

The St. Regis Atlanta

The hotel entrance; the dining room of the Empire Suite

Atlanta is known for its breezy, Southern, uncomplicated approach to life, business, culture... and just about everything else. It's a perfect city for getting things done and for enjoying some great boutique shopping, cuisine, art, jazz and sports: major league baseball, basketball and football teams are based here. The King Center, the CNN headquarters (which is open for tours), the Atlanta Ballet and Symphony Orchestra are all a short drive from The St. Regis Atlanta. Dinner-only restaurant Atlas features a seasonally inspired American menu accented with European influences and decorated with masterpieces from the Lewis Collection by Picasso, Van Gogh and Chagall, among others. If you're in the mood for a bourbon, try The St. Regis Atlanta Woodford Reserve, hand selected by our team in Kentucky's legendary Woodford Reserve Distillery.

The St. Regis Bahia Beach Resort, Puerto Rico

The Plantation House entrance; two miles of pristine beach

Puerto Rico is where American and Latin American cultures meld and clash and get up to dance. A key center of the salsa music revolution of the 1960s and 1970s, it is still the home of many star performers. The island is a much-loved beach destination, but it is also known for its distinctive cuisine, culture and Caribbean vibe. Located on a former coconut plantation, The St. Regis Bahia Beach Resort is the first Five-Diamond resort on Puerto Rico. The expansive 483-acre property boasts views of El Yunque National Forest (with trails galore through the forest) and the Atlantic Ocean, and its low-rise plantation-style buildings have been designed with the natural surroundings in mind. There's a two-mile secluded beach, sanctuaries, a Remède spa and a golf course designed by Robert Trent Jones, Jr. Experience casual barefoot dining at The Spot Beach Bar Club, or try the new Sugar Beach Club, which offers a relaxed atmosphere and a menu of light dishes and drinks.

The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort

The resort's oceanside pool; the Atlantikós restaurant

Miami never loses its buzz. Art Basel, South Beach's effervescent social whirl, the rediscovery of Art Deco: all these have kept the focus on one of the cities that will define America's future. Exclusive Bal Harbour, on Miami Beach, has a rich history as a hotspot attracting jazz musicians, including Rat Pack legends. It's also one of South Florida's premier retail and restaurant arenas. The hotel's latest culinary offering, Atlantikós, with white-and-blue decor inspired by the Greek Isles, offers Greek fare with a Miami twist. Each night begins with a traditional Greek plate-smashing ritual. The afternoon-tea experience in the lobby has been revitalized, with gourmet desserts from one of America's top pastry chefs. Elsewhere, the BH Burger Bar offers a customizable menu featuring build-your-own burgers, gourmet franks, signature sides and shakes paired with local craft beer. From the decadent Signature Burger and Wagyu Beef Dog to the Salted Caramel Milkshake, it sets a new standard for casual yet elevated fare.

The St. Regis Houston

The destination swimming pool; the master bedroom of the Presidential Suite

Energy and power, Texan pride and individuality, open space and outer space, Houston is the big-muscled business capital of the Lone Star State. If the city has a reputation for getting things done and no messing around, The St. Regis Houston, in the tranquil, residential neighborhood of Post Oak Park and River Oaks, is the perfect complement. It is gracious, opulent and discreet. It's also conveniently located only half a mile from the Galleria retail area and six miles from Houston's central business district. Celebrated design firm ForrestPerkins has created a warm and welcoming Tea Lounge with a library so guests can punctuate their outings with morning coffee, afternoon tea or pre-dinner cocktails. The spectacular outdoor pool and sundeck, located on the mezzanine level and adjacent to the spa and fitness room, draw guests back time after time. It is open from 5am until 11pm daily, for guests who love to work hard and play hard as well.

The St. Regis Mexico City

The sleek hotel dominates the Mexico City skyline; one of the suites' living rooms

The St. Regis Mexico City, an idyllic urban resort, is the main resident of the Torre Libertad, an architectural masterpiece built by César Pelli. It sits on Mexico City's Paseo de la Reforma, a grand thoroughfare modeled on the Old World's iconic boulevards, and a bridge between the city center and the Imperial Palace in the Chapultepec Forest. In the heart of the metropolis, you can, from the helipad, take in views of the most mind-boggling urban sprawl. Don't miss the new Mercado del Carmen, a new trendy food market filled with artisanal products, spirits, and craft beers, as well as chic boutiques. The hotel's La Table Krug is the only place in Mexico where the limited edition Champagne Krug Millesime 2000 can be savored. La Table seats only 12 guests and has no menu, but is guided by the creativity of chef Oscar Portal Huget, who creates an 11-course menu from the freshest produce in the market. The resort's Remède Spa recently unveiled a new addition: its sumptuous Sol & Luna Spa Suite, which uses luxurious Elemis products.

The St. Regis New York

The hotel's famous entrance; the living room of the Bentley Suite

New York City is a collection of exceptional experiences, from the natural beauty of Central Park to the bustle of Broadway, from contemporary art at MoMA to the cobblestone streets of the Meatpacking District. In the heart of it all is The St. Regis New York, the ultimate Manhattan hotel, which completed a stunning renovation in September 2013 – and has seen the opening of The St. Regis Athletic Club on the 19th floor, plus newly redesigned meeting spaces on the second floor and lower lobby – infusing contemporary style with great heritage. Since opening in 1904, the hotel, founded by John Jacob Astor IV has been synonymous with bespoke service, innovation and luxury. The St. Regis New York celebrates a rich history that includes famous residents (Salvador Dalí, Marlene Dietrich) and the invention of the “Red Snapper” – more commonly known as the Bloody Mary – by legendary barman Fernand Petiot in 1934. The classic cocktail can still be enjoyed today in front of the same Maxfield Parrish mural at the hotel's King Cole Bar.

The St. Regis Princeville Resort

The stylish dining area of the Royal Suite; the view over the magical Hanalei Bay

The first thing you'll notice on arrival on the Hawaiian island of Kauai is the remarkable collage of natural beauty wherever you look. Lush tropical foliage is set against a deep blue ocean with a backdrop of majestic mountain peaks. The St. Regis Princeville Resort's clean, modern exterior is unfussy yet sophisticated, and the lobby is dominated by a cascading chandelier of more than 4,000 pieces of Murano glass, representing the waterfall on Na Molokama mountain. Among the many relaxing treatments on offer at the Halele'a Spa, which utilizes the healing properties of indigenous plants, why not try a Hawaiian Lomi Lomi massage to nurture the body and experience perfect relaxation? Four restaurants serve locally farmed and produced ingredients, and the hotel's infinity pool overlooks the wide expanse of the Pacific Ocean.

The living room of the Presidential Suite; beach life with a touch of luxury

On the same latitude as Hawaii, and blessed with year-round balmy sun and ocean breezes, Punta Mita on Mexico's Pacific Coast is where Mexico City's high society comes for its beachside retreats. The St. Regis Punta Mita Resort is in the Riviera Nayarit, and boasts 120 luxurious guest rooms and suites, looking out on to a flawless white sand beach and surrounded by luxuriant tropical flora. In early 2017 the hotel unveiled their newest culinary offering: the Champagne and Oyster Bar, this chic and intimate bar offers a seductive menu of oysters paired with Moët Ice champagne. The resort boasts two Jack Nicklaus golf courses, five full-service restaurants, villa residences, a Beach Club and the luxe Remède Spa. The spa recently introduced a mindfulness menu and flotation therapy. But this is no gated island experience: nearby seaside villages are kept vibrant by fishing and agriculture and by the indigenous Huichol, who maintain their artisanal traditions.

The St. Regis Washington, D.C.

The hotel exterior at night on K Street; the elegant St. Regis lobby

In the city of powerful addresses, the grand, gracious St. Regis Washington, D.C., two blocks north of the White House, remains the powerbrokers' hotel of choice. It was opened by President Coolidge in 1926; Ronald Reagan used to drop in to see his barber, Milton Pitts; and Jacqueline Onassis, Audrey Hepburn and Elizabeth Taylor were loyal guests. Over the years, redesigns by Henry Wardman and Sills Huniford have enhanced the legendary status of this, one of America's most iconic hotels. Business and politics are right on the doorstep, but the hotel is also close to the cultural heart of D.C., a short stroll from the splendors of the Smithsonian and the Kennedy Center. Eat at the hotel's signature restaurant, where our executive chef prepares the freshest seasonal local ingredients, influenced by Spanish cuisine, in a D.C. landmark restaurant.

The St. Regis Bali Resort

The private sandy beach at the southernmost tip of Bali; the exterior of Strand Villa

Bali is the best known of several thousand Indonesian islands and has been inhabited since 2000 BC. Its natural wonders are the main draw: beautiful beaches, colorful coral reefs, a central mountain range and dense tropical rainforest harboring many species of flora and fauna, including orchids, butterflies, ferns, birds and monkeys. The St. Regis Bali Resort is in Nusa Dua, on the southernmost tip of the island overlooking the Indian Ocean, with a private sandy beach, a saltwater swimmable lagoon and the sublime Remède Spa with its hydrotherapy pool. It's the perfect base for a Bali break. From your journey around the island, take back souvenirs of local crafts, such as woodcarving, weaving, and colorful batik textiles, which make wonderful gifts. In the evening, dine in style at Kayuputi or enjoy the traditional live gamelan music along with Indonesian specialties at Dulang. For the ultimate in luxury, take the newly refurbished Strand Villa.

The St. Regis Bora Bora Resort

One of the over water villas facing Mt Otemanu; a Master Bedroom overlooking the lagoon

Bora Bora, discovered by Captain Cook in 1769, is a 16-square-mile tropical island surrounded by coral reef and lagoons. This much-mythologized South Pacific island is some 5,000 miles west of Lima and almost 4,000 miles northeast of Sydney, its remoteness matched by its year-round warm climate and outstanding beauty. A step away from the picture-perfect beaches are rugged volcanic mountains covered with lush tropical vegetation. At the secluded 44-acre St. Regis Bora Bora Resort, all rooms have private dining areas, daybeds and state-of-the-art entertainment systems, and are elegantly decorated with Polynesian arts and crafts. Rooms either have direct access to the beach or are thatched villas built over water; views are of the extinct volcanoes, the lagoon or the reef. For the utmost privacy, the three-bedroom Royal Estate has four bathrooms, its own beach, a pool and an area with sauna, jacuzzi and hammam. If you are in search of perfect pampering, go to the resort's Miri Miri Spa by Clarins, a place of deep relaxation on its own private islet.

The St. Regis Chengdu

The indoor pool features colored lights and holograms; a Grand Deluxe Room

The capital city of Sichuan province is flourishing as a business hub, in part because of the excellent links to the rest of the province. But this is nothing new for Chengdu. It was one of the first places in the world to issue paper currency and the starting point for part of the Southern Silk Route, from where merchants would take the region’s renowned wares to the wider world. Yet for all its importance, this ancient metropolis, founded in 316 BC, retains a remarkably relaxed atmosphere. You’ll find delicious Sichuan food being served at the hotel’s signature restaurant Yan Ting, numerous tea houses and, for downtime, parks and temples to explore. Thanks to its location, The St. Regis Chengdu is perfectly placed for business meetings, yet within easy reach of prestige boutiques and cultural highlights, including temples, museums and parks. The St. Regis Kuala Lumpur

The Mark Evans mural in the lobby; the Astor Lounge Astor Bar

The St. Regis Kuala Lumpur is located in KL Sentral, one of the most prestigious and romantic neighborhoods, a stone's throw from the city's Lake Gardens and heritage landmarks such as the National Museum and House of Parliament. The hotel is infused with luxurious design details, such as breathtaking Austrian crystals and hand-made Italian gold tiles. Inspired by Polo, the "Sport of Kings", subtle details include horse-hair leather panels, saddle stitch and stirrup motifs. Guests can take advantage of a refreshing dip in the outdoor swimming pool, or relax and rejuvenate the senses at the 1,100 square meter Iridium Spa. The Japanese Restaurant features the three-star Michelin Saito-san in his first and only venture outside of Tokyo, Taka by Sushi Saito, serving his signature sushi, including his famous Anago Sushi. Guests will also enjoy tempura from Tokyo's Ginza Tenkuni, which has been serving Edo-style tempura since 1885. With six distinct dining venues, guests seeking incomparable cuisine will be spoiled for choice at The St. Regis Kuala Lumpur.

The St. Regis Langkawi

The living area of the Presidential Suite; the Main Pool

The St. Regis Langkawi nestles on the southern tip of Langkawi, the first UNESCO Global Geopark in Southeast Asia. The first new luxury resort on the island for 11 years, our discreet address overlooks a sparkling white-sand beach, swaying palm trees, and the glistening turquoise Andaman Sea. Our intimate resort offers the ideal departure point for exploring the Jewel of Kedah. On the archipelago's largest island, picturesque villages, paddy fields, majestic mountain peaks and lush tropical jungles filled with remarkable caves and waterfalls contribute to Langkawi's dramatic natural beauty. The translucent waters also invite guests to enjoy endless ocean activities, including fishing, snorkeling, diving, sunset cruises and more. Settle into the sophisticated comforts and flawless services afforded to each of our 85 suites and four over-water villas, including one with four bedrooms. As the only resort nearby offering over-water villas, each highlights signature design elements that bring the traditions of the brand to life.

ASK US ABOUT

The cable car and suspension Bridge at Gunung Mat Cincang. The second highest mountain on the island is famous for offering spectacular views of Langkawi.

The Seven Wells Waterfall is a picturesque spot where visitors can swim in the cool, clear waters or soak in one of the seven linked natural pools.

Langkawi's night markets are great for trying authentic local food prepared by street vendors at relatively low prices. Our St. Regis Concierge will be pleased to arrange transportation.

Family Traditions at St. Regis program: A customized Geo-Forest Safari. Visit geological wonders that date back to over half a million years; spot macaques, dusky leaf monkeys and exotic lizards; take a serene river cruise; and witness the spectacular marine life in the Andaman Sea.

Visit a Virgin Coconut Oil Farm, which takes you into undiscovered Langkawi. Enjoy the bucolic tapestry of Malay kampong houses, paddy fields and rubber plantations. Visitors can learn how to cold-press coconut oil and then take home a jar of the oil. Learn more at stregis.com/familytraditions

The St. Regis Lhasa Resort

The magnificent Potala Palace overlooking Lhasa; the Khailash Suite's living room

Set 12,000 ft above sea level, Lhasa is surrounded by the snow-capped peaks of the Himalayas, with air as clean as you'll find anywhere in the world. This extreme location will most likely take your breath away in more ways than one – you may need time to adjust to the altitude. For centuries, Lhasa has been the spiritual and political home of Buddhism, and the city is booming as tourists and pilgrims alike search for enlightenment and peace in the Place of the Gods, the name given to the city by the ancients. The St. Regis Lhasa Resort is a luxury five-star property in the city's bustling old quarter where the Jokhang Temple, frequented by Buddhist pilgrims, is found. The resort's spectacular Iridium spa offers specialist Tibetan treatments, or you might find healthy inspiration at the hotel's cooking school. Join us also at our bar, Tubo by Decanter, which boasts stunning views of the Potala Palace and Lhasa's finest selection of wines, cigars, and liquors.

ASK US ABOUT

The Potala Palace. One of the most famous architectural works in the world and a symbol of the Tibetan people, just 15 minutes from the resort. See it after hours, in an atmosphere of peace and sanctity.

Sabrage. St. Regis hotels have a history of embracing this famous ritual: the sabering of a champagne bottle with a sword. The St. Regis Lhasa has added Vajrayana Buddhist elements to this memorable ceremony.

Visiting the celestial lake on the Tibetan Plateau. There are hundreds of high-altitude lakes; among the most popular is Yandro Yumtso Lake, 80 miles from Lhasa.

Touring the Jokhang Temple (Balang North Street, Chengguan). This seventh-century temple is Tibet's holiest site. Go in the morning when Tibetan Buddhist pilgrims arrive, and stay until the afternoon, when the interior is opened to non-Buddhists.

Family Traditions at St. Regis program: With captivating activities and thoughtful, welcoming attention tailored for younger guests and their families, the St. Regis Lhasa is a destination that celebrates the art of play. Learn more at stregis.com/familytraditions

The St. Regis Florence

The Duomo and the rooftops of Florence; the Presidential Suite

A palazzo designed in 1432 by Filippo Brunelleschi, the architect of the Duomo Santa Maria del Fiore, The St. Regis Florence was converted into a hotel in the mid-1800s. When Queen Victoria took a Grand Tour, she stayed here. Now there's a designer suite by Italian luxury fashion house Bottega Veneta, and the hotel spa is collaborating with luxury cosmetics brand My Blend by Clarins. The Michelin-starred Winter Garden by Caino restaurant has a 19th-century illuminated colored-glass ceiling; and in keeping with the Tuscan capital's Renaissance heritage, there are classic frescoes and antiques throughout the building. Florence is a compact and, in the right season, relaxing city. After you've seen the world-class Uffizi Gallery and Michelangelo's David in the Accademia, make the most of the hotel's location on the Piazza Ognissanti in the city's historical heart: order an aperitivo, and sit back and watch as dusk falls over the city's churches, hills and belltowers.

The St. Regis Istanbul

Two views of the luxurious Cosmopolitan Suite

Istanbul has long been the place where Europe and Asia met and exchanged goods, philosophies, cultures and credos. In the past decade, it has become a confident, modern city and has witnessed booms in the art scene, in the quality and range of its nightlife, and in business. Ancient meets modern with confidence in this metropolis, and at The St. Regis Istanbul. Once you've ticked off traditional landmarks including Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace and the Grand Bazaar, explore modern must-sees such as contemporary art at Istanbul Modern and Galerie Nev, hip fashion boutiques in Cihangir or nightlife in Ortakoy or Beyoglu. The St. Regis Istanbul's neighborhood of Sisli is a quiet one adjoining bustling Beyoglu, so you get the best of both worlds. For the highest luxury, our custom one-bedroom Bentley Suite surrounds you with walls of curved veneer and sumptuous leather fittings, inspired by the seductive interior of the Bentley Continental.

The St. Regis Mardavall Mallorca Resort

The living room of an Ocean One Suite; the magnificent pool

All the pleasures and treasures of the Western Mediterranean are found in Mallorca, the main island of the Balearics. The beaches get a lot of attention and some are pretty stunning, but inland are olive groves and vineyards, mountains and rural mansions, cozy old restaurants and tourist-free towns and villages. In the island's southwestern corner on the Costa d'en Blanes, there are turquoise waters and a sense of being apart from the hubbub. This is also you'll find The St. Regis Mardavall Mallorca Resort, whose guest rooms were designed by Claudio Carbone. It is a lovely hideaway and a perfect base for exploring the best of the island. The main restaurant Aqua has been renovated throughout and The Center for Traditional Chinese Medicine has been extended; the spa's product lines now include NIANCE and Maria Galland. Continue your stay with a session on the wooden yoga platform, which has a tranquil sea view. And at the end of the day, don't miss a relaxing dinner at the Michelin-starred Es Fum restaurant.

The St. Regis Rome

The hotel’s façade, next to the historic Fountain of Moses; the living room of the Couture Suite

For history, beauty, style, culture and romance, Rome has few rivals as the world’s most compelling metropolis. Here ancient palaces, temples, churches and monuments sit alongside all the contemporary attractions of a modern European capital. Such a city deserves a hotel of classical proportions, and The St. Regis Rome, built right beside the ruins of the Baths of Diocletian, more than lives up to those expectations. Rome’s first grand hotel, this palazzo was opened by celebrated hotelier César Ritz in 1894, and it retains its majesty and prominence in the life of this great city to this day. The hotel, with its luxurious interiors, beautiful ballroom, chandeliers and hand-painted frescoes, makes for a majestic base from which to explore the Eternal City. Don’t miss the Piazza della Repubblica’s latest opening: Eataly, the largest Italian marketplace in the world, full of restaurants, food and beverage counters, a bakery, retailers, and a cooking school.
