The St. Regis Abu Dhabi

It's easy to understand the appeal of The St. Regis Abu Dhabi. The capital of the United Arab Emirates is fast developing a major arts and cultural scene, turning the city into an ever more sophisticated metropolis blessed with cutting-edge architecture and world-class sports. Part of the prestigious Nation Towers complex on the Corniche, a five-mile stretch adjacent to the Arabian Gulf where you'll find walking and cycling paths and children's play areas, The St. Regis Abu Dhabi is the ideal home-away-from-home. Don't miss the Luxury Nation Galleria Vox Cinemas directly connected to The St. Regis Abu Dhabi, with 11 cinemas including four Gold Class. Relax and soak up the sun with a refreshing cocktail on the private beachfront at the exclusive Nation Riviera Beach Club, home to Catch Restaurant and Lounge Abu Dhabi, where an open kitchen allows guests to interact with the chefs and watch as ingredients are transformed into delectable dishes.

The St. Regis Saadiyat Island Resort

Saadiyat is an island of only ten square miles, but it packs a lot into that space. Just 15 minutes' drive from the center of Abu Dhabi, it has a white sand beach, a designer golf course and the newly opened Louvre Abu Dhabi, which is a delight for art lovers. It's a relaxing and chic retreat from the bustle of the city. The St. Regis Saadiyat Island Resort's architecture and interior design are stunning – each room has panoramic vistas of the Gulf or golf course and interiors that meld Spanish and Arabian elements with a contemporary edge. In addition to business facilities, the resort has an Iridium spa offering products from luxury skincare brand ESPA, four swimming pools, a dedicated children's club and the state-of-the-art St. Regis Athletic Club. Dolphins frolic in the blue waters, while nearby Saadiyat Beach is a nesting site for hawksbill turtles. The resort's newest addition is the first Middle Eastern outpost of celebrated global brand Buddha-Bar Beach, a glamorous day-to-night destination that combines delicious Pacific Rim cuisine, finely crafted cocktails and cutting-edge beats.

The St. Regis Cairo

The St. Regis Cairo draws guests to the heart of Egypt's timeless metropolis, on the north end of Corniche Road along the Nile. Exceptionally designed by Michael Graves, the hotel's 36 stories stand as a unique expression of modern luxury that draws on the city's influential past while confidently introducing its future. Local heritage is reflected through outstanding views of the Nile and Old Cairo as well as distinctive murals in our guest rooms depicting papyrus gardens and Nile Valley flora. Between mother-of-pearl inlaid nightstands, our sumptuous signature beds are topped by exquisite linen and pillows while bathrooms are clad in light Emperor marble. The St. Regis Butler service remains the ultimate experience for all guest rooms, suites and luxury apartments. Our Astor Grand Ballroom features a dedicated entrance for very special occasions while The Crystal Hall boasts a three-story vaulted ceiling with a dramatic Swarovski chandelier. Overlooking the Nile, the hall's alabaster grand staircase is bordered by crystal and bronze handrails, portraying the true essence of our Modern Egyptian Grandeur.

The St. Regis Doha

Doha has transformed itself in a very short time. Now the media and arts capital of its region, a major player in the aviation stakes and the host of the 2022 World Cup, it's an ultra-cosmopolitan capital. Two miles from the city's main business district, The St. Regis Doha, with its postmodern Arabian architecture and panoramic views of the Arabian Gulf, provides the perfect base. The hotel's Rooftop Lounge brings the urban chic of New York, Beirut and London to Doha. Guests ascend from the private entrance in the lower floor of the hotel and step onto a breathtaking, stylish and spacious terrace. At The Raw Bar, chef Elias Gemayel brings his creative flair to raw cuisine, turning the finest ingredients into culinary masterpieces in collaboration with celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay. Choose from a wide range of caviars, oysters, carpaccio, ceviche, sushi and sashimi to savor with the finest wines, champagne and exclusive gastronomic signature cocktails. With exceptional signature dishes served through the week and a rare collection of spirits from around the world, The Raw Bar is the best place in Doha to enjoy unique culinary and mixology experiences.

The St. Regis Mauritius Resort

The Indian Ocean is famed for many things: blissful beaches, indigo seas, sublime diving and a vibrant culture melding Asian and African traditions. Mauritius brings these together, then adds a few more. Sheltered from the open sea by the world's third-largest coral reef, the "Pearl of the Indian Ocean" harbors some of the planet's most beautiful mountain scenery: waterfalls, lush forests and wildlife you won't find anywhere else, such as the Mauritian flying fox. The St. Regis Mauritius Resort has a beachfront setting at Le Morne, a peninsula at the south-western tip of the island. Featuring five distinct culinary experiences, The St. Regis Mauritius Resort offers epicureans a myriad of gastronomic influences ranging from French-inspired and traditional Mauritian cuisine to the exotic dishes of South-East Asia and fine Japanese selections. There are also spa experiences, world-class kite surfing, activities and excursions. The peninsula has been a UNESCO World Heritage site since 2008, and is less than 60 minutes' drive from the capital and 20 minutes' drive from the Black River Gorges National Park.

The St. Regis Aspen Resort

Aspen is a special place where people can lose themselves in nature, yet find great pleasure in the many sports available. Yoga, fly fishing, clay shooting, hiking... the varied menu of sporting experiences rivals the food and drink you'll enjoy here. There is also an arts scene and great spa-based activities. The Remède Spa was voted Best Spa in the World, 2014 by readers of Travel + Leisure magazine. Located in downtown Aspen, The St. Regis Aspen Resort is walking distance from shops, restaurants and entertainment. Modern Mountain Cuisine meets rustic elegance at the resort's new signature restaurant, Velvet Buck, which is named for the velvet fur that grows on the antlers of a male deer, while the newly renovated lobby bar and lounge, Mountain Social, is a premier après-ski destination offering refined spirits, handcrafted cocktails and light fare with the majestic backdrop of Aspen Mountain.

The St. Regis Atlanta

Atlanta is known for its breezy, Southern, uncomplicated approach to life, business, culture... and just about everything else. It's a perfect city for getting things done and for enjoying some great boutique shopping, cuisine, art, jazz and sports: major league baseball, basketball and football teams are based here. The King Center, the CNN headquarters (which is open for tours), the Atlanta Ballet and Symphony Orchestra are all a short drive from The St. Regis Atlanta. Dinner-only restaurant Atlas features a seasonally inspired American menu accented with European influences and decorated with masterpieces from the Lewis Collection by Picasso, Van Gogh and Chagall, among others. If you're in the mood for a bourbon, try The St. Regis Atlanta Woodford Reserve, hand-selected by our team in Kentucky's legendary Woodford Reserve Distillery.

The St. Regis Bahia Beach Resort, Puerto Rico

Puerto Rico is where American and Latin American cultures meld and clash and get up to dance. A key center of the salsa music revolution of the 1960s and 1970s, it is still the home of many star performers. The island is a much-loved beach destination, but is also known for its distinctive cuisine, culture and Caribbean vibe. Located on a former coconut plantation, The St. Regis Bahia Beach Resort is the first Five-Diamond hotel on Puerto Rico and is also designated as a Forbes Travel Guide five star resort. The expansive 483-acre property boasts views of El Yunque National Forest and the Atlantic Ocean. There's a two-mile secluded beach, sanctuaries, an Iridium Spa and a golf course designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr. In addition to The St. Regis Bar, three distinctive dining venues are offered – a signature fine dining restaurant located on the second floor of The Plantation House, Seagrapes, a casual poolside restaurant boasting a pizza oven and indoor and outdoor dining, and The Spot, a beachfront kiosk. Guests can also enjoy Beach Club by Chef Jose Enrique, which overlooks the ocean and is located in the Bahia Beach Clubhouse.

The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort

Miami never loses its buzz. Art Basel, South Beach's effervescent social whirl, the rediscovery of Art Deco: all these have kept the focus on one of the cities that will define America's future. Exclusive Bal Harbour, on Miami Beach, has a rich history as a hotspot attracting jazz musicians, including Rat Pack legends. It's also one of South Florida's premier retail and restaurant arenas. The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort recently opened a new lobby expansion – a glass-enclosed atrium area with new lounge spaces and a French-inspired eatery, La Gourmandise. The hotel's latest culinary offering, Atlantikós, with white-and-blue decor inspired by the Greek Isles, offers Greek fare with a Miami twist. Each night begins with a traditional Greek plate-smashing ritual. The afternoon-tea experience in the lobby has been revitalized, with gourmet desserts from one of America's top pastry chefs.

The St. Regis Deer Valley

Hit the trails or relax in the spa, go on an outdoor adventure or explore historic Main Street... The St. Regis Deer Valley is surrounded by the majestic Wasatch Mountains, an all-season playground for both the adventure and relaxation seeker. The true ski-in/ski-out resort is located in the gated Deer Crest community on the slopes of Deer Valley Mountain Resorts and is accessible by a funicular rail line, the only one of its kind in the US, which makes for easy, and unique, access from the base of the mountain to the resort. Once settled in, try our Remède Spa where a grand spiral staircase leads to 11 peaceful treatment rooms in the 14,000-square-foot spa complete with a tranquility room with a reflecting pool. Or dine in our award-winning Jean-Georges Vongerichten restaurant, J&G Grill, featuring farm-to-table elegance. With all of The St. Regis Deer Valley year-round family traditions and recreational activities, unique and memorable experiences are waiting at every turn.

The St. Regis Houston

Energy and power, Texan pride and individuality, open space and outer space, Houston is the big-muscled business capital of the Lone Star State. If the city has a reputation for getting things done and no messing around, The St. Regis Houston, in the tranquil, residential neighborhood of Post Oak Park and River Oaks, is the perfect complement. It is gracious, opulent and discreet. It's also conveniently located only half a mile from the Galleria retail area and six miles from Houston's central business district. Celebrated design firm ForrestPerkins has created a warm and welcoming Tea Lounge with a library so guests can punctuate their outings with morning coffee, afternoon tea or pre-dinner cocktails. The spectacular outdoor pool and sundeck, located on the mezzanine level and adjacent to the spa and fitness room, draw guests back time after time. It is open from 5am until 11pm daily, for guests who love to work hard and play hard as well.

The St. Regis Mexico City

The St. Regis Mexico City, an idyllic urban resort, is the main resident of the Torre Libertad, an architectural masterpiece built by César Pelli. It sits on Mexico City's Paseo de la Reforma, a thoroughfare modeled on the Old World's boulevards, and a bridge between the city center and the Imperial Palace in the Chapultepec Forest. From the helipad, you can take in the mind-boggling urban sprawl. Don't miss the King Cole Bar terrace; this new fully renovated space features superb mixology paired with lively DJ sets to complement the majestic views of Mexico City's premier address. The hotel's La Table Krug is the only place in Mexico where the limited-edition Champagne Krug Millesime 2000 can be savored. This season, don't miss Diana Restaurant's new menu, which features rising star chef Fernando Sanchez showcasing a tantalizing interpretation of Mexican gastronomy. The Remède Spa, meanwhile, offers luxurious organic spa treatments and skincare products designed to protect your skin from UV rays, artificial light and pollution.

The St. Regis New York

New York City is a collection of exceptional experiences, from the natural beauty of Central Park to the bustle of Broadway, from contemporary art at MoMA to the cobblestone streets of the Meatpacking District. Located right in the heart of it all is The St. Regis New York, the ultimate Manhattan hotel. Since opening in 1904, the hotel, founded by John Jacob Astor IV, has been synonymous with innovation and luxury. Its rich history includes famous residents (Salvador Dalí, Marlene Dietrich) and the invention of the "Red Snapper" – commonly known as the Bloody Mary – by legendary barman Fernand Petiot in 1934. The classic cocktail can still be enjoyed in front of the same Maxfield Parrish mural at the hotel's King Cole Bar. Today, the hotel's influence is as strong as ever, with the new Broadway musical War Paint featuring scenes set at The St. Regis New York.

The St. Regis Princeville Resort

The first thing you'll notice on arrival on the Hawaiian island of Kauai is the remarkable collage of natural beauty wherever you look. Lush tropical foliage is set against a deep blue ocean with a backdrop of majestic mountain peaks. The St. Regis Princeville Resort's clean, modern exterior is unfussy yet sophisticated, and the lobby is dominated by a cascading chandelier of more than 4,000 pieces of Murano glass, representing the waterfall on Na Molokama mountain. Among the many relaxing treatments on offer at the Halele'a Spa, which utilizes the healing properties of indigenous plants, why not try a Hawaiian Lomi Lomi massage to nurture the body and experience perfect relaxation? Four restaurants serve locally farmed and produced ingredients, and the hotel's infinity pool overlooks the wide expanse of the Pacific Ocean.

The St. Regis Punta Mita Resort

On the same latitude as Hawaii, and blessed with year-round balmy sun and ocean breezes, Punta Mita on Mexico's Pacific Coast is where Mexico City's high society comes for its beachside retreats. The St. Regis Punta Mita Resort is in the Riviera Nayarit, and has 120 luxurious guest rooms and suites, looking out onto a flawless white sand beach and surrounded by luxuriant tropical flora. In early 2017 the hotel unveiled their newest culinary offering: the Champagne and Oyster Bar: a chic, intimate bar with a seductive menu of oysters and Moët Ice champagne. The resort has two Jack Nicklaus golf courses, five full-service restaurants, villa residences, a Beach Club and the luxe Remède Spa, which recently introduced a mindfulness menu and flotation therapy; the latter is a state-of-the-art float pod that takes relaxation to a new level. But this is no gated island experience: nearby seaside villages stay vibrant by fishing and agriculture and by the indigenous Huichol, who maintain their artisanal traditions.

The St. Regis San Francisco

The Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz, cable cars, beaches, beautiful city vistas, the breezes... it's little wonder San Francisco tops many people's lists of must-see cities. The St. Regis San Francisco is on the corner of Third and Mission, a short walk from the financial district. When you have downtime, the city is a great playground for cultural days and nights on the town. On your doorstep you'll find the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the Museum of the African Diaspora, world-class shopping in Union Square, and the Yerba Buena Gardens. Take a trip out of town to enjoy Napa and Sonoma Valleys, the coastal towns of Carmel, Pebble Beach and Monterey, or the redwood trees in Muir Woods. Enjoy a signature cocktail at the Lobby Lounge at The St. Regis. Relax in the Remède Spa, with its exquisite menu of treatments, or simply unwind and enjoy our extraordinary property, starting with the stunning city views from the infinity pool.

The St. Regis Toronto

Trendsetting and boundary-breaking, St. Regis marks its Canadian debut at the most coveted address in Toronto. Rising 65 stories above Canada's international enclave for business and culture, The St. Regis Toronto, which opens Winter 2018, defines a new era of glamour in the heart of the city. The hotel's remarkably central location is just steps from the city's world-renowned landmarks, shopping and entertainment including the CN Tower, Toronto International Film Festival, Scotiabank Arena, Rogers Centre, Theatre District, and Saks Fifth Avenue. Exquisite design and bespoke butler service unite amongst the city's largest luxury guest rooms and suites, blending modern elegance and tranquil respite from the illustrious cityscape. Iconic rituals and epicurean moments captivate the senses and act as a crossroads where travelers and the city's creative, social and entrepreneurial connoisseurs converge and connect. # The St. Regis Washington, D.C.

In the city of powerful addresses, the grand, gracious St. Regis Washington, D.C., two blocks north of the White House, remains the powerbrokers' hotel of choice. It was opened by President Coolidge in 1926; Ronald Reagan used to drop in to see his barber, Milton Pitts; and Jacqueline Onassis, Audrey Hepburn and Elizabeth Taylor were loyal guests. Over the years, redesigns by Henry Wardman and Sills Huniford have enhanced the legendary status of this, one of America's most iconic hotels. Business and politics are right on the doorstep, but the hotel is also close to the cultural heart of D.C., a short stroll from the splendors of the Smithsonian and the Kennedy Center. Dine at the hotel's signature restaurant, Alhambra, where our executive chef prepares the freshest local ingredients, influenced by modern Mediterranean cuisine.

The St. Regis Bali Resort

Bali is the best-known of several thousand Indonesian islands and has been inhabited since 2000 BC. Its natural wonders are the main draw: beautiful beaches, colorful coral reefs, a central mountain range and dense tropical rainforest harboring many species of flora and fauna, including orchids, butterflies, birds and monkeys. The St. Regis Bali Resort is in Nusa Dua, on the island's southernmost tip overlooking the Indian Ocean, with a private sandy beach, a saltwater swimmable lagoon and The St. Regis Spa with its hydrotherapy pool. Celebrating its 10th year of excellent service, the resort recently underwent a major villa refurbishment, introducing new bespoke elements and artwork as well as comprehensive contemporary design and technology. In the evening, dine in style at Kayuputi or enjoy traditional live gamelan music along with Indonesian specialties at Dulang. For the ultimate in luxury, take the newly renovated beachfront Strand Villa.

The St. Regis Bangkok

Tuk-tuks, trucks, riverboats, bicycles, boats and buses... the Thai capital is a whirling mass of energy. But Bangkok is also a warm, friendly place, and you can follow up that sweltering morning's outing, business meeting or hike around the 18th-century Grand Palace with a slow meal of the most fragrant cuisine on earth. The St. Regis Bangkok's soothing décor immerses guests in luxury from the moment they arrive. It might be in the fast-beating heart of central Bangkok, but it is also moments from the peaceful Lumpini Park. To start your evening in style, what could be better than an extraordinary selection of drinks at The St. Regis Bar, where highlights include evening demonstrations of the art of sabrage and the signature "Siam Mary" – a Thai-accented take on the Bloody Mary, with a backdrop of the setting sun and city lights.

The St. Regis Bora Bora Resort

Bora Bora, discovered by Captain Cook in 1769, is a 16-square-mile tropical island surrounded by coral reef and lagoons. This much-mythologized South Pacific island is some 5,000 miles west of Lima and almost 4,000 miles northeast of Sydney, its remoteness matched by its year-round warm climate and outstanding beauty. A step away from the picture-perfect beaches are rugged volcanic mountains covered with lush tropical vegetation. At the secluded 44-acre St. Regis Bora Bora Resort, all rooms have private dining areas, daybeds and state-of-the-art entertainment systems, and are elegantly decorated with Polynesian arts and crafts. Rooms either have direct access to the beach or are thatched villas built over water; views are of the extinct volcanoes, the lagoon or the reef. For the utmost privacy, the three-bedroom Royal Estate has four bathrooms, its own beach, a pool and an area with sauna, jacuzzi and hammam. If you are in search of perfect pampering, go to the resort's Miri Miri Spa by Clarins, a place of deep relaxation on its own private islet.

The St. Regis Changsha

Changsha, the capital of Hunan province, has a history spanning 3,500 years and has been one of the most important cities in China since the Qin Dynasty. The St. Regis Changsha is at the heart of the shopping and business districts, within reach of major transportation hubs, museums and historical sites of interests. Housed in Yunda Central Plaza, on the 48th to 63rd floors in one of the city's tallest skyscrapers, the hotel has its own helipad. The 188 guest rooms and suites feature an intelligent iPad control system and contemporary touches along with local antiques. An expert team of chefs presents unparalleled dining experiences in six venues. The Chinese Restaurant Yan Ting will captivate gastronomes with authentic Cantonese and local dishes, while the Un Japanese restaurant offers extensive Japanese fare and Teppanyaki experience. The St. Regis Changsha provides the chance to relax at The St. Regis Athletic Club, with an indoor swimming pool, beautiful panoramic views and a 24-hour fitness center.

The St. Regis Chengdu

The capital city of Sichuan province is flourishing as a business hub, in part because of the excellent links to the rest of the province. But this is nothing new for Chengdu. It was one of the first places in the world to issue paper currency and the starting point for part of the Southern Silk Route, from where merchants would take the region's renowned wares to the wider world. Yet for all its importance, this ancient metropolis, founded in 316 BC, retains a remarkably relaxed atmosphere. You'll find delicious Sichuan food being served at the hotel's signature restaurant Yan Ting, numerous tea houses and, for downtime, parks and temples to explore. Thanks to its location, The St. Regis Chengdu is perfectly placed for business meetings, yet within easy reach of prestige boutiques and cultural highlights, including temples, museums and parks. Later, enjoy our signature Chuan Mary cocktail at the Vantage XXVII outdoor sky bar on the 27th floor, open from April to October, with in-house DJ, skyline views and a statement bronze bar.

The St. Regis Kuala Lumpur

The St. Regis Kuala Lumpur is located in KL Sentral, one of the most prestigious and romantic neighborhoods, a stone's throw from the city's Lake Gardens, the National Museum and House of Parliament. The hotel is infused with luxurious design details, such as breathtaking Austrian crystals and hand-made Italian gold tiles. Inspired by Polo, the "Sport of Kings", subtle details include horsehair leather panels, saddle stitch and stirrup motifs. Guests can take a refreshing dip in the outdoor swimming pool, or relax at the 1,100 sq m Iridium Spa. Enjoy eclectic dining experiences, from The Drawing Room, featuring the monumental sculpture Horse – the largest ever made – by world-renowned artist, Fernando Botero, to The Brasserie, where seductive French cuisine meets Mediterranean. Sample the freshest sushi at Taka by Sushi Saito by three-Michelin-starred chef, Takashi Saito of Sushi Saito in Tokyo, or edo-style tempura at Ginza Tenkuni. End the night at Astor Bar and Decanter, which offers an extensive menu of wine, whiskey and champagne, as well as premium cigars; or relax in KL's coolest rooftop bar, Crystal.

The St. Regis Tianjin

China's fourth-largest city, the coastal metropolis of Tianjin has a fascinating history as the entry point for foreigners visiting and trading with Beijing and the rest of northern China. The European-style houses of the French and German concessions add a dash of grandeur to the metropolis, and original turn-of-the-century architecture can still be seen in the Wudadao district. The hotel is opposite the glittering Riverside 66 shopping mall, home to 400 renowned international brands. Many rooms have stunning river views, but if it's a special trip, book the Presidential Suite, which has Chinese antiques, its own dining room and whirlpool bath. Also try the Xi He Ya Yuan Peking Duck restaurant on the second floor of The St. Regis Tianjin, which continues to build upon our unique Modern Chinese culinary concept, while introducing more Chinese creations, such as our classical interpretation of Peking Duck.

The St. Regis Zhuhai

Situated on the western bank of the Pearl River Estuary in China's southern Guangdong Province, Zhuhai is the gateway to Macau and one of the country's most cherished destinations. Overlooking Zhuhai's central business district, The St. Regis Zhuhai is located just minutes from the city's most iconic attractions: the wonderful Yuanming Palace, the famous Fisher Girl statue, and the stunning vistas of Lover's Road. The hotel inhabits the top floors of the city's tallest building, offering waterfront views to complement the fantastic dining options: Yan Ting serves modern Cantonese fine dining at Guangdong's highest culinary level, while the hotel's remarkable Social Signature Restaurant draws inspiration from the first-class dining salons traditionally reserved for the wealthy in the late 1800s and early 1900s. The St. Regis Bar exudes an aura of elegance with classic jazz music, St. Regis signature Bloody Mary cocktails and afternoon tea. LaBrezza, meanwhile, delights diners with organic, modern Italian fare on the rooftop of the 71st floor, while Air 71 serves the city's finest cocktails along with a fine selection of wines, champagnes and light appetizers.

The St. Regis Florence

A palazzo designed in 1432 by Filippo Brunelleschi, the architect of the Duomo Santa Maria del Fiore, The St. Regis Florence was converted into a hotel in the mid-1800s. When Queen Victoria took a Grand Tour, she stayed here. Now there's a designer suite by Italian luxury fashion house Bottega Veneta, and the hotel spa is collaborating with luxury cosmetics brand My Blend by Clarins. The Michelin-starred Winter Garden by Caino restaurant has a 19th-century illuminated colored-glass ceiling; and in keeping with the Tuscan capital's Renaissance heritage, there are classic frescoes and antiques throughout the building. Florence is a compact and, in the right season, relaxing city. After you've seen the world-class Uffizi Gallery and Michelangelo's David in the Accademia, make the most of the hotel's location on the Piazza Ognissanti in the city's historical heart: order an aperitivo, and sit back and watch as dusk falls over the city's churches, hills and belltowers.

The St. Regis Istanbul

Istanbul has long been the place where Europe and Asia met and exchanged goods, philosophies, cultures and credos. In the past decade, it has become a confident, modern city and has witnessed booms in the art scene, in the quality and range of its nightlife, and in business. Ancient meets modern with confidence in this metropolis, and at The St. Regis Istanbul. Once you've ticked off traditional landmarks including Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace and the Grand Bazaar, explore modern must-sees such as contemporary art at Istanbul Modern and Galerie Nev, hip fashion boutiques in Cihangir or nightlife in Ortakoy or Beyoglu. The St. Regis Istanbul's neighborhood of Sisli is a quiet one adjoining bustling Beyoglu, so you get the best of both worlds. For the highest luxury, our custom one-bedroom Bentley Suite surrounds you with walls of curved veneer and sumptuous leather fittings, inspired by the seductive interior of the Bentley Continental.

The St. Regis Mardavall Mallorca Resort

All the pleasures and treasures of the Western Mediterranean can be found in Mallorca, the main island of the Balearics. The stunning beaches get a lot of attention, but inland are olive groves and vineyards, mountains and rural mansions, cozy old restaurants and tourist-free towns and villages. In the island's southwestern corner on Costa d'en Blanes are turquoise waters and a sense of being apart from the hubbub. This is where you'll find The St. Regis Mardavall Mallorca Resort, whose guest rooms were newly designed and remodeled in winter 2017-2018. It is a lovely hideaway and the perfect base for exploring the best of the island. The Center for Traditional Chinese Medicine has been extended, the spa's product lines now include NIANCE and Maria Galland, a Mimo gourmet shop is part of the hotel's facilities and Miguel Navarro, chef of the Es Fum restaurant, has reconfirmed his Michelin star for 2018. Continue your stay with a session on the wooden yoga platform, which has a tranquil sea view.

The St. Regis Rome

For history, beauty, style, culture and romance, Rome has few rivals, with ancient palaces, temples, churches and monuments sitting alongside the contemporary attractions of a modern European capital. Such a city deserves a hotel of classical proportions, and The St. Regis Rome, built beside the ruins of the Baths of Diocletian, more than lives up to those expectations. Rome's first grand hotel, this palazzo was opened by celebrated hotelier César Ritz in 1894, and it retains its majesty in the life of this great city. The hotel, with its luxurious interiors, beautiful ballroom, chandeliers and hand-painted frescoes, is eager to embrace a new era of glamour thanks to an ongoing full-scale renovation. Light, reflectivity and refinement are the keynotes of the new design scheme with the lobby and public areas uplifted by an abundance of natural light falling upon the cream, white, powder-blue and dove-gray backdrop throughout. The social heart of the hotel is the Cælum Bar, where fashion and art converge in the light-filled piazza reminiscent of a winter garden.
